Press Release

Whatcom Human Rights Task Force and Whatcom Community College are pleased to announce the 14th Annual Martin Luther King, Jr. Conference entitled “Reawakening Dreams, Empowering Communities” . It will be held at Whatcom Community College Syre Center on January 14th.

The Conference will be honored to have two distinguished keynote speakers. Our morning keynote is Dr. Dexter Gordon. He is the Distinguished Professor in Communications Studies and Director of the African American Studies Program at the University of Puget Sound.

Our afternoon keynote speaker is Mr. Jeff Robinson. He is a past president of the Washington Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. He has been one of the top 100 Black Lawyers in America and co-winner of the 2009 ACLU Civil Libertarian Award

The Conference is free and open to all members of the community. In collaboration with Bellingham School District, teachers may earn clock hours. Workshops will cover a variety of interests for teachers, community members and youth.

Parking is free at Whatcom Community College. For more information call 733-2233 or go to the website at: www.whrtf@whrtf.com

Registration begins at 9:30 a.m.
